"Rendez-Vous" WITH THE PRESIDENT

(...) I stand here now, very grateful for all the achievements and challenges that have strengthened the ISF family; but most of all, I stand here to look forward for the youth, education, and sport. Yet now is also the time to reflect, consolidate and to continue to build up the ISF together. The ISF has reached an unprecedented level of development: what is waiting ahead of us is as exciting as it is challenging. This challenge is one that we must be willing to accept. This challenge is one that I am ready to accept, while finding a balance between authenticity, continuity and openness for the next four years. (...) The ISF has tremendous potential. And, we will manage to achieve our ambitious goals because of who we are, because of what the ISF stands for, based on the values the ISF shares and promotes worldwide. Authenticity shall guide us in giving a solid structure to our federation.

For more transparency and better coordination, the work, already engaged on several fronts, will be carried out by different commissions. The professionalisation of our events and programmes shall be supported, on the one hand and on a daily basis, by a young and dynamic team, and, on the other hand, by experienced elected officials divided into several commissions that will lead the way forward (...) The ISF will keep encouraging youth participation and empowerment through innovative projects on gender equality and inclusion, such as the creation of the first Inclusive Games. We hope to give more opportunity to the youth by strengthening the propositions of the Youth Council and developing stronger programmes on education for teachers, coaches and athletes. The ISF is, and shall remain, an inspirational model to the rest of the world of education through sport.

This world changes fast. It hosts generations whose challenges evolve every day in terms of environment, peace, and education. Gathered around common values, we stand here, beyond our differences, to tackle these issues, not because they are easy, but because they are hard and worthy of our greatest efforts. And we are not willing to delay. (...) Together, let's now consolidate the future of the ISF

MOROCCO

In 1996, the National Federation of School Sport of Morocco - Fédération Royale Marocaine du Sport Scolaire - was created.

The aim is to participate in the implementation of the strategy of the Ministry of National Education, Professional Learning, Superior Education and Scientific Research in school sports.

Gymnasiade 2018 is the second ISF event that Morocco has hosted. Previously, the ISF Cross Country was organized in Marrakech in 2000, with 22 participating countries.

Every year, Morocco organizes national championships of school sports: team sports, cross-country, athletics or, as in the case this year, prepares for the 2018 Gymnasiade.

Teams of Morocco also take part in the ISF events all around the world.

Morocco took the second place on the podium of the overall medal ranking at the 17th Gymnasiade. The young Moroccan athletes reached this honourable place for the first time, with 33 gold medals, 23 silver medals and 32 bronze medals.

The host country, also with the largest delegation, represented in all disciplines, with more than 252 athletes proudly wore the colours of their country. In addition to the young athletes, 250 Moroccan volunteers were mobilized on this major event to ensure its success.

ISF & Youth

GYMNASIADE VILLAGE

— SPORT VILLAGE FOR ALL —

One of the new additions of the Gymnasiade 2018 in Morocco was the opening of the sport village. From the 2nd to the 9th of May, the sport village welcomed athletes, coaches, heads of delegation, VIPs and visitors under an open sky and fun atmosphere.

Inaugurated by Saïd Amzazi (Ministry of National Education, Professional Learning, Superior Education and Scientific Research), the village also hosted 500 young local school children throughout the Gymnasiade to raise awareness on the values of sport and the ISF. A large diversity of stakeholders came to promote education through sport, cultural sharing and fun activities on four different areas: institutional, animation, games, and show zones.

— EDUCATION THROUGH ANIMATION —

Every day in the sport village several educational activities were set up for all participants.

The Youth Council of the ISF initiated and ran the Fun&Skills Zone. Dynamic young volunteers from all over the world prepared games that were built around three topics: inclusion, sustainability and health. This was the perfect opportunity for participants to share their experiences and test their knowledge.

The Regional Anti-Doping Agency (ORAD

Africa Zone 1) was also represented by an educational agent: through interactive games, visitors of the sport village were made aware and tested their anti-doping and health knowledge.

The School Sport Foundation also had a stand in the village and presented its actions through different educational games about multicultural exchanges, sharing and openness to the world.

The SSF supported more than 50 students from 13 ISF members to come and take part in the Gymnasiade 2018.

— MULTICULTURAL SHARING —

First and foremost a competition, the Gymnasiade is a milestone in the life of athletes to create amazing sporting memories.

Throughout this main focus there remains a highly appreciated opportunity to share cultures and experiences beyond sport. Every day, students could go on cultural visits to discover the Moroccan culture, its history, art, architecture and gastronomy in Marrakesh and in Casablanca.

At nightfall the cultural festival enlightened the main stage on the village. During four evenings of the Gymnasiade the teams took up the exciting challenge of performing and introducing their country to other delegations.

Video, dance, song; every initiative utilised was a fun medium to share one's culture with the rest of the world.

— YOUTH BEST QUOTES —

"I like swimming because I love the water and it feels like I'm coming home."

Beste Samanci, Turkey, Swimming

"I like playing chess because it is good for the mind..."

Guilherme de Borba, Brazil, Chess

"The main point is to do your best, to go out there, to show who you are."

Izel, USA, Karate

"Sport is not only about winning or losing. Sport is about having fun and sharing moments."

Rashid Al-Mansouri, Qatar, Volunteer

"Fencing has become a part of my life. It can help me get into the best university in China."

Qin Jin Yan, China, Fencing

"It's a sport for anyone who is willing to try hard enough, who is willing to go the length..."

Zachary, USA, Karate

Kinder+Sport is a global and responsible project developed by the Ferrero Group, aimed at supporting physical activity among young generations.

The programme stems from the knowledge that an active lifestyle is an essential part of a positive daily routine for children, teens and families. The goal of Kinder+Sport is to increase levels of physical activity among young generations around the world, giving them the possibility to develop a skill-set able to help them acquire proper behaviors and social and ethical attitudes.

We strongly set education at the core of our project, to help children grow up with the most worthy values of sport and life such as honesty, friendship, unity and trust in others.

Miscellaneous

INTRODUCING THE NEW LOGO AND ANTHEM

One of the decisions of the ISF General Assembly in Brazil was the final approval of the new logo and anthem. Both were developed with the goal of enriching and advancing the unique image of ISF.

THE LOGO

The ISF logo has been changed 3 times altogether since the establishment of the organization in 1972, each one demonstrating the maturing nature of the organization. We are proud to present the new logo which, with a modern gust, still preserves the true identity of ISF. The recognisable violet colour, which is a mix of equal proportions of blue and red, remains in the main visual aspect of the logo. Violet symbolizes the balance of the spirit and sense, intelligence and passion, love and wisdom.

The 6 colourful squares were broken into pieces around the letters showing the drive towards expanding our horizons and the constant growth in the number of member countries. The irregular nature of the pieces points out the infinity of young people from different backgrounds and cultures which come together at ISF events and form a powerful generation of future leaders.

The change of the frame, from round to square, illustrates the improvement of the organizational aspect of ISF and the constant development of its structure, from which a more quality output is produced. The biggest triangle is surrounding the letter "S" which points out the great importance of that letter in the abbreviation. The letter "S" represents; school, sport, sharing, society and many more, all words that are closely connected with the core of ISF's identity.

THE ANTHEM

For the first time, ISF has its own anthem, which was written by Daniel Capelletti. The anthem was recorded in January 2018 in Jet Studio, where the Brussels Philharmonic Orchestra together with the students of the Royal Conservatory of Brussels performed the piece under the direction of David Navarro. Since the final approval of the anthem on the General Assembly, it was used at the Volleyball championship in the Czech Republic, and will be used in all protocol moments in future ISF events.

The anthem is a joyful and bright representation of ISF's identity, with a pinch of formal sensation. The powerful melody motivates listeners to keep being active and easily becomes an earworm. It is a big step towards an even more memorable and unique branding of ISF. Most importantly, the anthem perfectly presents what ISF brings to the lives of young people - joy, union, and empowerment.
