ISF YOUNG REPORTERS

As an ISF Young Reporter, you will be part of an incredible international school sport family of athletes, media experts, and inspirational young people!

You'll have the opportunity to pass the ISF media education programme and expand your knowledge and experience worldwide in the field of sports and media, being equipped with the tools to make an impact in school sports, sports media, at both the local and international level! This could be your first professional experience culminating in official certification.

The ISF Young Reporters Programme is an initiative of the ISF Academy implemented to select potential school sports changemakers and create future internationally known school sports reporters. We are ready to help you turn your passion for sports and media into action and a career!

You will be part of the School Sports Journalism and Media workshops during ISF events led by known experts offering you the education, practice, and lifetime experience in the field.

Learn about the organisation of large sporting events, photography skills, creating content for social media, what is school sports journalism, and how to report from events. Challenge yourself in video production and discover how broadcasting looks like from backstage within the event's studio!

You will have the chance to travel the world, following ISF events and reporting from them as well as taking back home lifetime friendships and memories!

Deadline for your Cover letter for national level & ISF selection: 15.1.2023.***
