MENTAL HEALTH IN SPORT & ANTIDOPING WORKSHOPS FOR ATHLETES

Through its international events, ISF promotes school sport not only through competition, but also through education. As part of this mission, the ISF Academy provides dedicated educational workshops for student-athletes, focusing on two key themes: Mental Health in Sport and Doping Prevention in Sport.

ISF firmly believes that student-athletes should be supported in understanding and managing the challenges they may face both on and off the field of play. Through Mental Health education, athletes explore topics such as stress and pressure, fear of failure, self-confidence, emotional management and mental well-being. Anti-Doping education introduces the principles of Clean Sport, including the risks of doping, the safe use of medicines and supplements, the doping control process, and athletes' rights and responsibilities.

During the event, student-athletes will take part in educational sessions delivered by experts in each field. Raising awareness and enabling participants to share their knowledge with teammates, schools and communities back home are also key objectives of the ISF Academy.

Through these workshops, ISF aims to support student-athletes in becoming not only better athletes, but also healthy, informed and responsible young people who understand and embody the values of sport.
