4. METHOD OF COMPETITION

4.1 General rules of competition

Competition will be held under World Taekwondo Poomsae rules & interpretation as in force as of May 14th 2019, and will be run on a Cut Off System of up to 3 rounds (preliminary, semifinal and finals) for Dan/Poom categories.

An exception is made for the color belt categories who should start at Preliminary and directly progress to compete in the Finals. The top 8 (if the category holds more than 10 competitors) will progress to the Finals round. All competitors shall perform 1 Poomsae for each round of competition.

4.2 Specific rules of competition online video competition

- Competitors should start their Poomsae facing the camera whilst still performing the necessary Poomsae stances to prepare and begin Poomsae: enter then Charyeot (attention stance), Kyongea (bow), Joonbi (ready stance) and then perform their Poomsae, Once finished they should return to Joonbi stance (facing camera at end). Competitor must stay within the camera view between the Poomsae. During the performance the competitor's full body head to toe must be in camera view and 0.3 deductions will be given if any part of the body goes out of view. See illustration below as set up guideline:

Competition Area

Competitors are encouraged to display their country's national flag (or name of country) behind the competitor's competition area in clear view of the camera.

Competitors whole body must be always be visible during the performance video footage, for fair and proper competition judging to be carried out according to the poomsae competition rules set in place. Videos which do not meet this standard may be removed from competition.

It is not mandatory to perform the poomsae on mats. The competitor can choose his/her surroundings as long as during recording the whole body is visible at all times. For example, one can record in a living room, in a hotel lobby or on a grass field.

Competitors are to treat this competition as they would any other Poomsae competition they would attend to the best of their ability whilst making the best of the circumstances they are in performing at home. We understand that due to these difficult circumstances that performance conditions may not be ideal and we will take that into consideration when scoring competitors, as well as competing for medals, we want competitors to understand that this is still supposed to be a very challenging and enjoyable experience. Your video must be created after 15th July 2020. Videos from any other event or previous competitions are not permitted. Any editing to the video will result in disqualification. Example, the joining of two video recordings.

If your video has been edited, with the exception of adding graphics to display your national flag and your name, it will be rejected.

Videos must be uploaded to a competitor's personal YouTube channel and be set on visible to all. Links of all videos must be emailed before 8th August 2020 (5:00 pm Nepal time). Links to videos received after this date will not be allowed and registered as a DSQ (disqualified). We urge competitors to upload well in advance as to not run into technical upload difficulties hours before the deadline entry.

It is not allowed to show any religious, political, or any other symbol negatively targeting a group or an individual in the video recording. Videos not following this rule are subject to immediate rejection.

4.3 Cut off system:
