

A C T I V E G I R L S ' L E A D

Call for International Young Volunteers

The International School Sport Federation is opening a call for volunteers for its Erasmus + Sport Event: “She Runs, Active Girls’ Lead”. It is an international programme that aims to promote health and physical activity, as well as the empowerment of girl students to reach gender equality in and through sport. This project will take place in Paris, from March 11th – 16th 2019, and gather 400 girl students from more than 35 countries in the world.

If you are interested, we invite you to read the following.

This multi-dimensional event includes sport, cultural, educative and entrepreneurial activities*.

Your role in She Runs – Active Girls’ Lead:

In “She Runs – Active Girls’ Lead”, you will be assigned delegations (group of student girls and adults) and will follow them throughout the event. Here are some of the tasks that you might be performing:

- Be an intermediary between the delegations to the relevant stakeholder involved in the project,
- Ask to solve basic technical problems (day-to-day problems) that your delegations may encounter (including claims and complains),
- Report the movement of each delegations throughout the event;of course,
- Of course you will attend all activities with the delegations

Conditions:

- Be over 18 years old and under 35 years old;
- Speak and write English; knowledge of French will be valued;
- Be ready to take initiative to scope with unexpected challenges during the event;
- Be comfortable in following a given delegation and solve day-to-day problems;
- Come from an Erasmus+ country
- Be available to participate in “She Runs- Active Girls’ Lead”, in Paris, from the 9th March – 16th March
- Be available to take part in some Skype sessions – individuals ad group calls – throughout the month of February, 2019;

Note: in line with the event objectives of young women empowerment, application of active young women will be preferred to create a direct opportunity for them to be involved at the international school sport level.

Selection process:

CV and motivation letter;

Deadline: January 31st, 2019

To be sent to ISF education department education@isfsports.org and intern@isfsports.org

Technical details

Please note that this is an unpaid volunteering experience. Also, please note that all costs related to your participation as volunteers in “She Runs – Active Girls’ Lead” will be covered; this includes:

- Transportation from your home country to Paris;
- Accommodation ;
- Weekly transport pass in Paris;
- SIM card with Internet and French service;
- First Aid training ;
- “She Runs Volunteers” uniform.

Volunteering in “She Runs – Active Girls’ Lead”:

Provisional program:

11: Arrival of delegation

12: “The Cultural Scavenger Hunt”, participants will get to discover Paris through the history of the city, of sport, and symbolic women.

13: “The Race and Village”, the international participants will meet with 2000 young local French women and will run together in the heart of the city of Paris in a non-competitive short race to celebrate intercultural friendship and the benefits of sport for health. Altogether, girl students will also participate in the “Village”, a festival where participants will discover new physical activities and share experiences in a fun and intercultural environment.

14: “The Talk”, 3 inspirational women will share their stories

14-15: “The Design Sprint” is an educational program that aims to train selected participants (10%) to become leaders in school sport by designing and creating local projects

And also, cultural nights to invite participants to share their own culture and tradition in a fun atmosphere.

For more information about the event, feel free to check this article.*

Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Swe-den, United Kingdom, The former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Turkey.*

We look forward to welcoming you in the team of She Runs, Active Girls’ Lead!

Organised by

Supported by

